This commanding, double storey home oozes street appeal and offers the ultimate in private, family living from its peaceful Kellyville address.

Set in a leafy lane, the home has a calming rear aspect, overlooking local bush and creek land. Inside this private oasis delivers even more welcoming features including ample living areas for the larger family.

Spotted gum timber floors flow through the downstairs living areas which include separate formal lounge and dining areas, a study, family room, rumpus and media room.

The renovated kitchen is a highlight of the home with gourmet and quality features including timber cabinetry, 40mm stone benchtops, stunning new ASKO appliances,
