43A Parsonage Road Castle Hill NSW

5 2 5

This spotlessly presented, elegant family home is tucked away in a quiet neighbourhood and is surrounded by established, mature, low maintenance gardens. It's only a leisurely walk to shops, local & city buses and school. Spacious living areas include formal lounge and massive separate dining room, tiled family room adjoining modern kitchen and rumpus room. Five bedrooms, ensuite bathroom plus walk-in robe and built-in robe to main. This truly is single level living at its best! Perfect for vintage car enthusiasts or mechanics - you can store five of your prized possessions, plus all your spares and tools and still have room for a workshop in the spacious garage (one of which is drive-thru) or alternatively, the garage would be suitable for conversion to in-law accommodation. The motivated vendors are willing to listen to offers.
