What a beautiful feel this home has. With polished timber floors, high ceilings, ducted air-conditioning and five fairytale bedrooms, this home has that instantly welcoming feel. You will be able to relax in any room and your guests will never want to leave. Offering the ultimate in privacy behind the brick fence, the outlook from every room of this home is tropical styles and you could be in a resort. The kitchen is centrally located and overlooks the meals/rumpus room and out over the deck and luscious back garden. The formal lounge and dining rooms are spacious, comfortable and with great big glass windows overlooking the front courtyard. The master bedroom is the opposite side to the other bedroom and offers privacy and seclusion and also has views of the fountain in the courtyard, a functional ensuite, walk-in robe plus masses of extra storage. For the man of the house there is a fantastic tool shed with full head height and extra under house
