

CastleHaven

51 Burrabogee Road Toongabbie NSW

4 3 1

This home has four very large bedrooms, (three being queen size) all with built-in robes and the master having a walk-in robe and ensuite bathroom. Beautifully presented, there is not a thing to be done. From the very chic study, large formal area, stunning galley style gas kitchen and family room big enough for the largest table possible, you will love this home. The family room opens out to the fully covered entertaining and barbeque area which overlooks the neat and level grassed backyard. With the added bonus of a "study nook" upstairs, this home has everything you would need. An oversized single lock up garage, air conditioning downstairs and all within 700m to Pendle Hill Station and a short walk to primary and high schools. The location is quiet and central with Parramatta bus at the end of the street. The size of this home will surprise you, and is ready for you to move in and start living, in the most delightful way.
