New to the market, the words "potential" and "convenience" come to mind. Ideal for the plumber, electrician or builder to park the ute, van or truck and also the opportunity to base their business from home. The bedrooms are all of good size plus the casual and formal living areas overlook the massive entertaining patio located at the front of the property exposing the beautiful valley views. There is a sunny gourmet kitchen that overlooks the very private and leafy rear garden and BBQ area at the rear. Added extras include reverse cycle ducted air-conditioning, security shutters, polished timber floors and fireplace and only a short stroll to local primary and high schools, local and City bus links and if you desire leave the car at home and walk to the height of entertainment, the Castle Hill RSL. To view this property call Greg Edwards on 0414 558 080.
