Reading this ad - then you must be excited, yet overwhelmed with which apartments to look at in this new building - The Atmosphere!

You will read other ads for properties in this complex and see that, the building is newly built, almost near completion. It is the largest apartment complex in the Hills and currently the most exciting. As well as residential units, there are commercial units on street level, with new tenants to go in, including restaurants and cafes. The Castle Hill Train Station is a few steps from the lobby as is the major bus stop, and the Castle Towers across the road, which will also be celebrating exciting new upgrades.

If you are looking for a two bedroom, this apartment definitely will impress!! One of the bigger two bedrooms, with built-in robes to both. Two bathrooms including ensuite bathroom to main bedroom. Lots of natural light. Open plan
